Seek immediate medical care if someone experiences any of the following:

- Trouble breathing
- Ongoing pain or pressure in the chest
- New confusion
- Inability to wake or stay awake
- Bluish lips or face

COVID-19 may not cause any noticeable signs or symptoms, or they may range from mild to severe. Symptoms of COVID-19 may appear 2 to 14 days after infection with the virus. Examples include:

SIGNS AND SYMPTOMS OF SARS-COV-2 INFECTION (COVID-19)

- Headache
- Runny nose, congestion
- Cough
- Sore throat
- Fatigue
- Shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Diarrhea
- New loss of taste or smell
- Nausea, vomiting
- Fever or chills
- Muscle pain, body aches
- Cough
- Runny nose, congestion
- Sore throat
- Headache
- Fatigue
- Muscle pain, body aches
- Diarrhea
- New loss of taste or smell
- Nausea, vomiting
- Fever or chills

Examples include:

- Fever or chills
- Diarrhea
- Shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Muscle pain, body aches
- Fatigue